

GREG DEBOSE

Coach Greg DeBose has been coaching youth and high school basketball for over 20-years, respectfully, of all age levels.

Greg was head freshman coach and varsity assistant at Dwyer Community High School. Greg played for Santa Fe State in Gainesville, FL before transferring to Bauder College in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida where he earned a degree in Fashion Merchandising, with a minor in Management.

Greg focuses on embracing the process of growth around developing the fundamentals, motivating other, to bring out the highest possible individual efforts which entails the need to focus on how to be a player better every day to succeed at the next level of his/her basketball journey.

Hailed as a definitive basketball coach with a wide variety of interests, sports, fashion, youth sports and beyond. Greg is undoubtedly a great addition to our team, he carries principals of leadership, discipline, and teamwork.