

ROBERT SHAWGER

Head of Basketball Operations/GM

Robert, who we affectionately call Rob, is married to Karen Shawger and they have one son Patrick Shawger.

Rob graduated from Richmond University in 1992 where he was a four-time first team all Colonial Athletic conference winner in golf. Rob was voted player of the year in 1991 and in 2021 he was named one of the “Top 25 Golfers in the past 25 years for the Colonial Athletic Conference.

Rob was a professional golfer from 1993-1996. Since 1997 Rob has worked in the financial industry, with a great deal of success. Rob is also the owner of Palm Beach “foodie” staple “Pig Beach BBQ” currently located in New York, with pop-up openings in the West Palm Beach area, with a future brick and mortar to be opened in West Palm Beach.

Rob has coached two-years of youth basketball with the Palm Beach Garden Stars for three years and one-year with the First Choice Allstars.

Rob has a deep passion for helping young people in any way that he can to catapult their success. In addition to being a foundational figure with First Choice Allstars, and has encourages success for the youth, players, and fellow coaches. He is a great staple to aspire for our team in sports as well as business. Rob believes hard work will always pay-off in the end when reaching for your goals.